

A weekend of aikido with guest instructor:

Etsuji Horii

(6th dan, Aikikai Foundation;
Aikido Kobe Sanda Dojo-cho)

Dates: April 21/22, 2007

Times: Saturday 10:00 am to 2:00 pm
Sunday 10:00 am to 2:00 pm

Location: Meadowbank Stadium & Sports Centre
139 London Road, Edinburgh EH7 6AE

Cost: Weekend £40 (£30 concessions); One day £30 (£20)
10% reduction for advance payments (up to April 15)

Etsuji Horii entered Hombu Dojo in Tokyo in 1985, initially as an uchideshi then becoming a full-time instructor. He moved back to his native Kansai region in 1996 to establish the Aikido Kobe Sanda Dojo. With this thriving dojo as a base, Horii Sensei serves as shihan at various regional and university dojos and is also active as deputy vice president of the Aikido Hyogo Federation and a director of the All Japan Aikido Federation.

I have trained at Aikido World Headquarters of the Aikikai Foundation for 10 years. I will devote all my strength for research and development of aikido as long as I live. I will look back at myself through the lessons, and find out the meaning of the words by the Founder, Morihei Ueshiba: 'Bu is Love'.

— Horii Sensei

See www.lares.dti.ne.jp/~horii/

Further information: Neil Blacknell, (0131) 620 2403
neilblacknell@hotmail.com